FARMVILLE.

Some of us are beginning to urge a home-coming week for Farmville during the Jamestown Exposition. Our sons and daughters are scattered the country over, from sea to sea and lakes to gulf, doing noble service in different work fields, useful members of church and state, and how wish we would fling open our gates to receive them and how homes would brighten and hearts would thrill with new bliss by vision of their presence. October would be the ideal season but as many of them are teachers in our schools midsummer would no doubt suit the greater number. We won't differ as to the date, but that the gathering must take place. No one will say nay. We could spread at least one dinner under the shade trees at the lithia springs and make it a memorable day in the history of our town. Our 'City Fathers' would no doubt furnish that meal and make it worthy of hosts and guests.

The party who intimated that we were not going to have turkey on Thanksgiving day was simply mistaken. We did have them and they were never finer nor fatter. Some of our more fortunate friends had them dressed with oysters. The turkey should be known as the American bird. Nothing like it in field or forest. The tame kind is always better than the wild.

Mr. L. J. Verser, who is among the veteran dry goods men of the town, used to be the champion turkey hunter and I don't know that he has yet lost his skill in that regard. Mr. S. W. Paulette, Jr., unconsciously squirrel nature better than the rest of us. At the beginning of the bird season I heard a lady say she could eat two a day for 30 successive days. I don't know whether or not she has been put to the test.

A Normal girl told me the other day that 'Niagara' would be the next subject for debate in her society, and I have been busying my brain ever since to know just how the question can be framed. Niagara alone has neither negative nor affirmative so far as I know but is simply glorious in its uniqueness. The Normal girl, however has a genius for debate to which I am a stranger.

If I understood the published statement of our dispensary sales only some three thousand dollars of profits were made on the sale of more than fifty thousand dollars of liquors sold. This is not 10 per cent, whereas I have been often told that saloon keepers made as much as 50. If this be true, and the town insists on continuing in the whisky business, it would be well to have the successful saloon keeper take charge of it for neither town nor bar room keeper would engage in the business unless there's profits in it.

Christmas goods drummers have been with us of late in formidable numbers. Some people are silly enough to complain of the number of "Knights of the grip" on the road, and I don't know what the railroads or the hotels would do with out them. As a class they are the most genial and companionable of men. The fact is the man of little brain and bad manners would perish on the road.

There are some among our good Democrats who say that unless Mr. Lassiter secures a public building for Farmville he need'nt hope to go back to Congress for another term.

Our chrysanthemums are not as large as some we have seen but still are not "to be laughed at." Mrs. T. H. Glenn, of Prospect, is the queen of flower growers for this section of Virginia. She loves flowers and loves to care for them.

A new hotel project for Farmville is being discussed, but I fear that some of our young folks will have grown old before this new scheme has been consummated. An up-to date hostelry would be worth much to Farmville but our men of means are wedded to tobacco in vestments. The weed is my opinion has been a handicap to our town and county. Hard to make hard to sell for a profit and this is true of dealers as well as of farmers, for few tobacco buyers in this market have left fortunes behind them; it is an article which has contributed nothing of good to the human family. And yet it is the pet of all Farmville, has been for years gone and will be for years to come.

Our recent bank statements show a most gratifying progress in the affairs of our town. The two banks report nearly a million of money handled and as it all belongs to our people some of them must be making money right along.

Seventy years ago there were 250 laborers engaged in the manufacture of tobacco in our town and now here is'nt one. We had a flourishing carriage factory, large tailoring establishments, made shoes extensively, but all these are gone, though Farmville has gone steadily and rapidly to the front.

We all urge upon the farmer diversefi d farming and would do well to encourage diversified industries n town.

Dr Jarman attended the Education al meeting at the University and all our local educators were in Richmond last week attending the state rally.

Rev. Mr. Hatcher preached at Hampden Sidney last Sunday night and the only services held in town were at the Baptist church.

Mr. B. M. Cox, who has been grunting some of late, says he is better and attributes it to the free use of buttermilk.

Dr. Cute is receiving congratulations all around his circle of friends—it's a girl.

The Argus and Cunningham literary societies came into collision in debate last Monday evening and excitement arose above fever heat.

One of our blacksmiths broke the leg of a horse he was shoeing the other day, in the effort to lift the foot from the ground and I am told that suit will be instituted by the owner for damages.

Mrs. Watts, who has had charge of the Westover, has leased the home of the late W. F. Gilliam and will continue to take boarders.

Mr. L. Bugg and bride will not be at home until after the 1st of January. They are enjoying their honeymoon near Ashville.

The S ar Warehouse has been getting 'star' prices for tobacco of late. Six per second dollars for bigs, eight and three fourths for short and twelve for long. Under the new management this house is moving steadily to the front.

Lingering Cold.

Withstood other treatment but quickly cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local doctor recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so gave it a trial. One small bottle cured me. Neither Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used."

Thoughts.

'Tis hard to be a poor child—
It's not so very funny
To have scarce clothes enough to wear,
And not a cent of money.

To see your friends all dressed so fine,
When all your clothes are old,
It sometimes makes'ts envious,
It makes us wish for gold.

This state of things won't last alway,
A change will surely come.
There will be wealth enough for all,
When we arrive at home.

In heaven we shall all be dressed,
The rich, the poor, the great,
In robes so wonderfully fair,
For them I'll gladly wait.

Dead

On the morning of Thursday Nov. 22nd the death angel visited the home of Mr. J. W. Cyrus and claimed as its guest the loving wife and mother, Mrs. Martha Wilkerson Cyrus. Mrs. Cyrus has been complaining for some time but had only been confined to her bed for about two weeks, when the summons came and she quietly and peacefully fell asleep in Jesus.

She was a member of New Chapel Baptist church and is well known through Appomattox and adjoining counties for her many christian qualities and deeds of kindness shown towards all, especially the sick, to whom she was ever ready to lend a helping hand.

She is survived by husband, Mr. John W. Cyrus, and seven daughters, Mrs. Mamie Deaning, of Lynchburg, and Misses Martha, Melva, Delia, Naomi, Johnnie and Una Cyrus; one brother, Mr. Madison Cyrus, of Spring Mills, and one brother Mr. J. W. Wilkerson, of Amherst, besides many friends and relatives to mourn their loss.

The funeral services were conducted from Mt. Vernon Bap tist church on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. J. C. Davidson, pastor of the church officiating. The remains were interred in the cemetery at Mt. Vernon. The pall bearers were Messrs James Carson, Eugene Cross, Douglas Hayden, Willie Joy, Davy Pugh and Turner Wilkerson. The flower bearers were Misses Zelma Carson, Maggie Brooks and Lizzie Staples.

Rev. Mr. Bell Again

Dear TIMES:—As everyone knows the last few weeks of a Conference year are very busy times with a Methodist preacher. So I have been busy getting ready for Conference. Not having to move we are settled for another year.

Last year was, in most respects, the most successful of my whole ministry. We had a net gain of 55 in membership, and raised for all purposes $1704.83. The circuit is well organized and we are planning for larger things this year. A forward movement along all lines is our motto this year. My salary was overpaid. Our people are prosperous and contented. All farm products are bringing good prices. Farming down here can be done with much more ease than in the hill country. Labor is scarce but our farmers are adjusting themselves to the changed conditions by using a great deal of machinery.

Politics seem to have very little attraction for the mass of the people. A few chronic old office holders, or office seekers, ride around and shake hands with the 'dear people.' Office holding nowadays seems to mean, to a great extent, drawing a salary, for of real statesmen there are few, very few.

Many voters are become indifferent, or independent. It does not indicate, or require much brains to go to the legislature and, out of the people's taxes, vote themselves larger salaries, or to create offices (not needed) for favorites. The Democratic party promised good roads, better schools, economy of administration and other reforms but they have not yet materialized. Why? There is coming a day of reckoning when the people with the voice of thunder will arise in their might and turn the grafters out. There are many who will not submit to the 'party lash'. The Democratic papers have long condemned the Republican party for its 'stand pat' policy, and yet, with wild gesticulation and hoarse voice, disheveled hair and dramatic pose they call on the "dear voter" to "support the nominee," "vote for the party," "stand pat." They are "playing to the galleries" and the voter is being amused at the show. The 'organ grinds and the monkey dances but few are the pennies dropped into the cup.

Virginia is called the 'mother of statesmen' but I am grieved to know most of such sons are dead and her grandsons are not very promising along the line of statesmanship. How are the mighty fallen! Poor old Virginia. We had thought, having been so taught, that the spirit of the Inquisition was dead, and dead forever, but it seems to have been resurrected in some sections of the South and even in Virginia. 'Greed,' grind, graft, bold-faced persecution and any other means open to one bent on greed to subject by some to a compliant their purposes. In their lurid campaign speeches they loudly proclaim their 'p', 'free speech', and a 'free press' and yet I one dares to exercise that liberty and not vote for them, or crawl in the dust for them they brand him as a traitor and persecute him 'till they ruin him or drive him out of the community. Ha! We are tired of such stuff.

I read the TIMES with greater interest, and when it fails to reach me it is a great disappointment. You are to be congratulated upon keeping your column free from mud-slinging. Abuse is not argument. May the people of Appomattox and Buckingham more fully appreciate the TIMES and continue to support it. Some may get mad, but "whom the gods would destroy they first make mad."

The atmosphere is sultry and it is beginning to rain. Good.

When to go rome.

From the Bluffton, Ind., Banner: "When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best, go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extravagant, go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy go home and light up the whole household."

To which we would add, when you have a bad cold go home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and a quick cure is certain.

A Home Made Happy by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

About two months ago our baby girl had measles which settled on her lungs and at last resulted in a severe attact of bronchitis. We had two doctors but no relief was obtained. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to find a certain remed which had been recomended to me and failed to get it, when one of the storekeepers insisted that I try Chamberlains Cough Remedy. I did so and our baby is alive and well today.—Geo. W. Spence, Holly Springs, N. C.

Communicated.

Editor of TIMES: I have just seen the communication in the last issue of your paper from Bent Creek. It makes this statement: "If any Congressman who has done so much for this county, was not employed by the R. R. Co. we feel assured that he would have the Co. rebuild the bridge."

Let me thank your correspondent for the compliment to me in saying that I had done much for the county; but at the same time, I want to correct the statement that I am employed by the R. R. Co., I have never represented the C. & O. Ry. Co. in but one case and that was some years ago. Since then I have had a number of cases against it.

I would be glad to see the bridge rebuilt, and I believe the C. & O. could, and ought to, be made to rebuild it; but I have no authority to act in the matter, and so I can do nothing, though I am ever so willing to help my friends to bring about a result desired by so many of us.

Very truly,

How Diphtheria is Contracted.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diptheria germ. When Chamberlains Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diptheria or any other germ disease being contracted.
